Jacketed in a nylon jacket and a hooded jacket to keep you warm, the golden lightweight balaclava kept me warm, waterproof, cushiony and comfortable. Very natural and light-weight. You have been made to feel welcome for the journey in both directions and the journey has been a lot of fun. I would do this trip again. They were extremely helpful with accomodation and planning. This is our second visit to the Kruger Park. The experience is vastly superior to the Pretorius Nature Reserve in Bergrivier Bay as there are not as many animals due to the fact that the animals eat bush meat. In the process of doing this we became aware of the insect issues - ticks in particular - some of which are not yet under control. In a concession in the park you are allowed to trap and kill rabbits - to prove you own the game, but keep in mind that you have to sell this in the concessions or, much worse, off the park. [15] On the next day we were also able to see the Lower Sabie Falls. We flew into Tygerberg airport and spent 2 days in the area before catching a bus to Hazyview. Hazyview is a small town just outside the Kruger. From the town itself there is a beautiful drive that takes you through the park - check out the pictures here. It is the biggest park in Africa and covers over 900 000 hectares. related title: f678ea9f9e
